NEXT MEETING THURSDAY OCTOBER 5TH

Dick Stultz, LtCol USAF (Ret), is our presenter for October. He completed a career as a combat fighter pilot with more than 5,000 flying hours, including many years in the F-106, and achieved a historically significant list of artistic endeavors as a fantastic cartoonist and aviation art creator. His art pieces can be found hanging at Aviano AFB in Italy, adorning walls worldwide, as nose art and on the tails of fighters, and even in the Smithsonian under "Unusual Achievements in Aviation History". Dick's visual, historically significant presentation includes illustrious creations such as "Wolf Zero One", which honors his combat leader Robin Olds, his "Flights of Fancy Creations" and his irreverent "Tazlanglian Devil" said to be the protector of the Devil's Triangle.

The title of Dick's presentation is "Untold Tales of Aviation Art." If he's never told the tale of this one, maybe he'll give us the scoop.

The only way to get the answer to that burning question will be to attend the meeting, so be sure not to miss it.

THANKS FOR SEPTEMBER 7TH PROGRAM:

Pat Nugent piqued our interest with a presentation of East Texas aviators who own and fly MiGs, one MiG-17s and the other MiG-23s. That was a lead-in to how a group of aviation photographers arranged a photo shoot of multiple aircraft of each type, including shots of three of each flying in formation. Thanks for the great job, Pat.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 2ND PROGRAM:

As of yet, our November presenter is unidentified. Putting the December presenter's lookahead info here would fill the space but negatively impact next months newsletter. If you know anybody with appropriate qualifications, we're open to suggestions.

Hope to see everyone and their guests at the THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5TH MEETING – Fletch
